My thanks to Reader, John Matthews, who has written our Preface this month

Preface

Dear Friends,

I am writing this article having just returned from walking the Collines des Moulins route in Mouilleron-en-Pareds, with Barbara and little Yorkie, Benny. The walk takes about an hour and a half and is marked by many upward and downward slopes. The sun was shining brightly (and still is) the birds were singing, and each time we reached the top of an uphill section, we were rewarded by wonderful, long distance views, enabling us to see our own route in the wider context of the surrounding countryside. Which got me thinking!

Technological developments now bring the rest of the world into our living room and we can exist in a permanent state of information overload. While we are regaled by so much information, many of us have not received any special training (programming?) to help us process it. However, whatever they are, our God-given abilities, and our life experience, have enabled us to negotiate life to date.

But do we ever reflect on where we are on life's journey? What have we learned from its ups and downs? Have they given us a better context for where our contribution fits into the wider picture? Do we still look to God for guidance?

In the Christian calendar, Lent is the period before Easter, the principal occasion for baptism and, historically, for the reconciliation of those who had been excluded from the Church's fellowship due to some serious fault.

As candidates for baptism were instructed in the Christian faith, and as penitents prepared themselves (through fasting and penance), to be re-admitted to communion, the whole Christian community was invited to join them in the process of study and repentance, over a period of 40 days. This reminded them of the 40 days Jesus spent in the wilderness, being tempted by Satan, as he prepared himself for his journey to the cross.

From the Middle Ages, it became the custom to begin Lent by being marked in ash by the sign of the cross on what is known as Ash Wednesday. The keynotes of Lent are self-examination, self-denial, study, preparation for Easter (the cross and Resurrection) and giving to the needy.

As we try to make sense of rapid change in the wider world, Lent provides us with the opportunity to slow down and reflect on Jesus' journey in the wilderness. Is our own Christian journey on the right track? We know from our own experience that God has always been with us; now is the time to acknowledge our love for him and our continued need of his guidance.

'Since we are justified by faith, we have peace with God, through our Lord Jesus Christ, who has given us access to his grace'.

John Matthews

Ash Wednesday this year is 6th March, when there will be a service at Puy de Serre, starting at 4.00pm.

March 2019

I hope that you are all enjoying this unseasonably warm weather and catching up with all the gardening. I hope that we don't have to pay for it later!

The season of Lent will soon be with us. Look out for the Lent Lunches and try to get to one or more if you possibly can. Once again, we are using these to raise money for Resto de Coeur and will finish with a quiz in Puy de Serre on the 12th April.

The Annual General Meeting will be held at 2:30 on 30th March in the Salle at Puy de Serre and will be preceded by a Lent Lunch at 12:30.

Completely new Electoral Roll 2019

2019 is a year for the preparation of a completely new Electoral Roll for all Anglican Churches. The Electoral Roll starts again from scratch, meaning that

Everyone who wishes to be on the Roll needs to apply, and old lists of electors are redundant.

The Electoral Roll acts as a “membership list” for churchgoers in the parish, and gives entitlement to vote at the Annual Meeting, or stand for office as Churchwarden or Council member.

Church rules for the preparation of the new Roll are very specific and Roll application forms will shortly be available at each church and also on line.

The preparation of the Roll will be completed in early March and available for inspection at least two weeks before the Annual Meeting on the 30 March 2019.

Chris Green, Electoral Roll Officer.
(greensinfrance@yahoo.co.uk)

Planned Giving
through the Standing Order Scheme

ADVANTAGES:

If you set up a standing order (virement) through your French bank, online, it is cost-free. If you need help doing this, please just ask me, or other council members.

You stay in total control of what you give – the standing order (virement) can be changed at any time, but only by you!

Only the treasurer knows how much you give per month.

You know what you are giving, and exactly when the money comes out of your account, and so your budgeting is much easier.

If you complete a French tax form, then you will get a rebate of 66% at the end of each financial year in which you have made a contribution. That means that a monthly virement of 30€ per month, will only cost you 10€ after tax. A monthly virement of 60€ will only cost you 20€ etc!

If your French tax bill is small, then you will pay no tax at all.

ASV can plan ahead much more effectively, as it knows what contributions are coming in, rather than guessing who is going to be at church!

If you would like to physically put something into the collection plate each service, then there should be small cards which you can collect on your way into church, which you can put into the collection plate as it is passed round.

DISADVANTAGES:

I can't think of any, so why not come and join the party!

British residents:

If you do not have a French bank account, but would like to support the work of ASV on a regular basis, then please contact me, and I can help you. Please note, you cannot use tax-efficient giving in both France and the UK.

Figures for January 2019:

Income: 950.00€
Expenditure: 1659.57€

We are holding our own at the moment, largely thanks to all the sterling work of our fundraisers who seem to work tirelessly - last year they raised 5543.00€ on our behalf. So, a heartfelt thanks to you all, from everyone on the Council!

The full accounts from last year will, as usual, be published at the AGM at the end of March in Puy de Serre.

Enjoy the sunshine,

The Vicarage Garden

Many of the "second-home-owners" have closed up their houses here for the winter, I feel we cannot let them disappear without thanking them, and a few more permanent residents, for all their hard work in maintaining the vicarage garden in good order throughout the year.

It has made such a difference and has been much appreciated, so a big "Thank You" to you all. For several it has entailed just one two-hour session, whilst others have been able to go two or three times. All have said that it has not been too arduous so hopefully we will be able to entice a few more volunteers next year.

It is only a small garden, but still needs constant attention and we know that not only has Hazel appreciated it when staying there, but so have the neighbours been glad of the weed reduction. We will be making a new rota in the spring and will be asking everyone to consider giving just a couple of hours during the year in order to make the task less for the few. Please bear this in mind, and again, our thanks to all those who have taken part during 2018.

God bless you all,
Marian

Keeping in touch.....

...our Readers write:

Hello Jacqui,

Thanks so much for keeping me up to date with what is happening at All Saints Vendée, by keeping me on the mailing list. Such happy memories are always evoked.

Two days ago, on Australia Day, I was granted Citizenship, a moving ceremony in the local park, where I was supported by my family and lots of friends. The weather threw everything at us during the ceremony, blazing sun (40+°), rain, high winds, and thunder and then back to sun - all in the space of 15 mins. Many of my friends were from the Uniting Church where I worship, and when I turned up to church on Sunday morning it was to find a photo of me getting my certificate being shown on a huge screen!!

Like so many churches worldwide we experience difficulties, and are having to work hard to resolve differences, but by God's grace things are coming together, and joy, peace and much love are manifesting themselves. I have started the concept of Bring and Share Lunches once a month, as it was such a part of our worship in France, and yesterday we were 10, an increase of four from the last time.

May God's blessings, peace and love be with you all in 2019.

Fondest regards

Olwyn-Anne xxx

Sunset from my balcony

Many of our readers have hobbies and interests which I am hoping you will be willing to share! I am delighted to say that John Matthews has taken up the challenge by sharing with us his love of Bird Watching:

Birdlife in the Deux-Sèvres (and Poitou-Charentes)

As I write this article (in mid-February) the sun is shining and the temperature is around 17°C in Fenioux. Nevertheless, as it was freezing earlier today, the feeding boxes in the garden are surrounded by hungry birds. However, a friend has just rung to say he's heard a Nightingale this morning, and this got me to thinking about how watching birds can enliven any country walk and brightens up our day.

Gt White Egret

In autumn and winter, we all tend to stay closer to home, so it's a delight to be able to put out food for and to watch 'regulars' in the garden such as Blackbird, House and Tree Sparrows, Dunnock, Starlings, Great Tits, Blue Tits, Goldfinch, Chaffinch, Collared Dove, Woodpigeon, Magpies, Great Spotted and Green Woodpeckers, Song Thrush, Fieldfare; Redwing, Robins and Wrens. In some years these are joined by Brambling and Hawfinch. In recent years, the often-solitary Great White Egret (Grey Heron sized and often sharing a field with one) can be seen in fields at any time of year, as can flocks of the smaller Cattle Egret, often in fields alongside cattle.

Cattle Egret

We have probably also heard, but struggled to see, Barn Owls or Tawny Owls, and thrilled when we see a Sparrow hawk flying close to the road surface in front of our car, before 'hopping' over a hedge. As we head out through the countryside to do our shopping, we can be rewarded with views of the sleek grey/silver Hen Harrier, again flying low over the fields hunting for food; while looking over fast running streams can attract the Kingfisher, which is always a delight to the eyes.

Kingfisher

In March we find the first of the migratory birds arriving and, by the end of the month, we could be hearing the cuckoo and nightingale, or seeing the first swallows, house martins, and swifts; following which Hoopoes and Golden Orioles, each with their distinctive calls, join us, along with migrant Black Kites (joining the few which have wintered here).

Sometime in April/May Barbara and I will be hoping to get in a visit to Brouage, the walled town below Rochefort in the Charente-Maritime (just over 80kms. from Niort), which is a marvellous place to see White Storks. These can be seen, in their huge nests, balanced on the specially constructed wooden platforms or on the arms of electricity pylons in the area. It's always a delight to see them, feeding their young, or encouraging their early attempts to fly.

If you don't already do so, please look out for the wide range of wild birds with which this area is blessed and, particularly in bad weather, don't forget to put some food out for those which visit your garden.

John Matthews

Proposed and Planned Social Events

Lent lunches

As in previous years we are planning a series of lent lunches – where various hostesses will make and serve a choice of soups followed by cheese or a basic dessert. There will be a box for donations which will be shared between the 2 Restos de Coeur which we usually support. Lent this year starts on Wednesday March 6. We have lunches booked for March 20 (Thiré) and March 27 (Mouilleron en Pareds) but if you would like to host one in a different area, please let me know.

Quiz

Therese has confirmed that the salle at Puy de Serre is available on March 1 so we will have a quiz then and another on April 12. March 1 will be a standard quiz with a choice of menus (Chicken curry or quiche and salad) April 12 will be the last of the 'Lent Lunch' series and the choice will be between various soups. Starting time for quizzes is 18h00 and they usually finish around 21h00

Other events

In the near future, we have:

Rackham's 'Coffee morning' to look forward to in Thiré on the morning of Saturday 27 April

They will undoubtedly be looking for helpers both on the day and beforehand

Car Treasure Hunt in the afternoon of Tuesday 4 June usually followed by an optional meal in a local eatery

I would also like to propose a 'Walk though the past' here in Mouilleron en Pareds. We now have 2 museums in the village devoted to the war and the people who were involved in it. One has always been in the family home of Jean de Lattre who was involved in the second world war and the other (just recently opened) is in the former and birthplace of Georges Clemenceau. This would be followed by a tea in a nearby garden. If you would find this interesting, please let me know.

The Seven Deadly Sins

And so there we have it: a nine-month journey through seven deadly sins - 'avarice, envy, gluttony, lust, pride, sloth and wrath'. I trust you've found it useful, interesting, enjoyable and challenging.

Fact is we are all sinful. St Paul says as much when he writes to the church at Rome: 'All have sinned and fall short of the glory of God.' (Romans 3 v23)

But even if we human beings are necessarily flawed, we do have the challenge of our faith to address our real short-comings. We do have principles by which to live our lives well and we do have the Spirit that underlies and informs what is right and what is wrong. And, by the grace of God, we can try to do the best we can, given that we are understandably, necessarily imperfect.

We do know that God loves us despite our many failings and that He is ready to welcome us home as the father welcomed the prodigal son. The young man was tired and hungry, dirty and smelly, barefoot and in rags, but his father ran out to meet him and did not wait to hear his apology before hugging his son warmly to him and welcoming him back home.

Even if we do do wrong, we can be forgiven. Each week in church, when we say the General Confession, we admit that we have fallen short of the standards expected of us and we ask for and accept God's forgiveness. And that pardon is there for us all.

Grace is what saves us and we should be grateful that our God, who has standards by which we should live, is also our Father in heaven who will forgive us when we fail/fall and who will help us back up and encourage us to try to do better.

I hope that helps. What do you think?
